

CRISIS IN FRANCE.

The Government Threatened With Disruption.

AN EMPIRE MAY BE REVIVED.

Bonapartists Have Drafted a Manifesto and May Present It to the People, Calling Upon Prince Victor to Ascend the Throne—Other Foreign News.

PARIS, Dec. 23.—Today it is the Bonapartists who are at the front ready to take advantage of the critical condition of the government. The Royalist activity aroused the jealousy of the Bonapartists, and at a secret conclave they drafted a manifesto to the people of France urging them to recall the house of Bonaparte to the throne. The manifesto is being withheld to await the approval of Prince Victor, present head of the ex-imperial family, who is in Brussels. Bonapartist agents have gone thither to endeavor to induce the prince to sign the manifesto.

The weakness of the opposition to the government, however, is becoming more and more apparent and the Imperialists and Royalists are now fighting among themselves, although heretofore united in opposition to republican rule. The manifesto, if issued, will cause little uneasiness, but the secret agents of the government are still watching the Royalists.

The refusal of the pope to become a tool of the monarchists is highly gratifying to the government.

M. Floquet, president of the chambers, appeared before the investigating committee. He declared emphatically that he never received a franc from the Panama company for any object whatever.

M. Guyot, formerly minister of public works, refused to appear before the committee to answer inquiries regarding his alleged role in the scandal. He based his refusal on the ground that he did not wish to mingle the name of President Carnot with the prosecution, Carnot having seen the list.

La Lanterne states that papers discovered yesterday show that Deputies Naquet, La Guerre, St. Martin and Laur received sums of money from Orton, the go-between in the corruption. The papers were discovered among documents found in the office of the dynamite company which supplies dynamite for use on the canal.

The Matin says that fifteen more warrants have been prepared against senators and deputies, and that public prosecutors in the country districts have been instructed to search the residences of accused persons and examine witnesses for evidence in relation to the charges. These proceedings will, it is apprehended, add greatly to the excitement in the country districts already aroused to a dangerous pitch.

M. DeLafesse writes to The Figaro that the parliamentary republic is ruined and ought to be replaced by a consular republic with Prince Victor Bonaparte as the first consul. The suggestion is looked upon as an attempt to revive the empire through the same process by which the first Napoleon arrived at the throne. It attracts attention only as indicating the strained situation which makes such a suggestion possible.

PRISONERS REVOLT.

Austrian Convicts Object to the Treatment They Receive.

VIENNA, Dec. 23.—A serious revolt occurred yesterday in the prison at Senaim. A woman prisoner, who was allowed the freedom of the corridors, suddenly became hysterical while on the top floor of the building, and with a terrible shriek threw herself over the rail guarding the opening which extends from the ground floor. The height was considerable, and the woman sustained painful, though not dangerous injuries.

At the time she jumped a number of male prisoners were in the court yard. They saw the whole affair, and immediately concluded the woman had attempted to kill herself because of ill-treatment. They were deeply indignant and many threats were uttered. The officials threatened to punish them for insubordination. Thereupon the convicts made a desperate attack upon the wardens, and the situation was becoming bad for the latter, when opportunely a body of soldiery, that had been hastily summoned, appeared. It was not until several of the convicts had been bayoneted that the revolt was suppressed.

The details of the revolt had scarcely been made public when the story of another prison outbreak was received from Konigsgratz. The convicts in the prison at that place have recently complained much of the bad food supplied to them, and yesterday they broke out in open revolt against their rations. It was necessary to call in the troops to quell the mutiny.

EXPLOSION OF A BOMB.

A House Badly Damaged, But No One Was Hurt.

MADRID, Dec. 23.—Considerable alarm was occasioned in Seville yesterday by the explosion of a bomb, presumably loaded with dynamite, in the entrance of a house occupied by one of the wealthiest citizens of the place. The force of the explosion was very great, the heavy entrance door being shattered and the windows broken. In several places large pieces of stone of which the house is constructed, were blown out. Nobody was hurt.

All sorts of rumors grow out of the affair, among them being one that the explosion was the work of anarchists who had commenced a campaign against the rich. The police, however, say they have no doubt that it was due to personal spite against the owner of the house.

The occupants of the house are in a condition of semi-panic, and a guard has been detailed to keep suspicious persons away from the place. No political importance attaches to the event.

ENGLAND'S GRAND OLD MAN.

Gladstone Preparing for the Approaching Session of Parliament.

PARIS, Dec. 23.—Mr. and Mrs. Gladstone and the members of their party arrived at Biarritz yesterday morning. At the request of Mr. Gladstone no official reception was tendered him, but during the morning all the principal officials of the town called upon him and welcomed him. A large number of bouquets were presented to Mrs. Gladstone, and the donors were thanked by Mr. Gladstone on behalf of his wife.

Though Mr. Gladstone is looking remarkably well for a man of his years, it is hoped that the climate and new surroundings at Biarritz will so add to his strength that he will be able to wage successfully the battle that will be entailed upon him at the approaching session at the British parliament.

Woman Murderer Hanged.

LONDON, Dec. 23.—Thomas Edwards was hanged yesterday at Ask for the murder of Mary Connolly at Aberavenny, on the 16th of September last. The case was of an extraordinary character. Edwards acknowledged having killed the woman, and said that he murdered her because she was of immoral character, and because he had made up his mind to kill as many of her kind as possible.

Not a Drop of Blood Shed.

PARIS, Dec. 23.—The duel between Clemenceau and Deroulede took place yesterday. They shot at each other three times, but neither was touched.

Mrs. Langtry Better.

LONDON, Dec. 23.—Mrs. Lillie Langtry is rather better and the fever from which she is suffering has subsided sufficiently to allow her to sleep.

MUCH WANTED MAN.

CINCINNATI, Dec. 23.—The members of four building associations of this city are very much worried over what appears to be some very crooked work by ex-State Senator Robert J. Kuehnert, who is, or was, attorney for the four associations involved. The associations involved are the McMicken, No. 5; the Sparkasse, the New German and the Germania.

It appears that Kuehnert has made seven first mortgages on one piece of property owned by Mrs. W. J. Fitzgerald, of Walnut Hills, which aggregate $29,000. The property in question is worth about $5,000.

Warrants will probably be issued for Kuehnert's arrest today unless he can be found and makes an explanation of his transactions. Some very interesting developments are expected.

Kuehnert's office was besieged by anxious inquirers all day yesterday but no one could tell where he was. It is thought he has left town.

TWO MEN BADLY HURT.

A Wild Train Dashes into an Engine and Seven Caboosees.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Dec. 23.—Yesterday morning shortly before daylight, two engines collided in the Louisville and Nashville yards here, and the valve of one of them flew open. The engine and fireman had jumped off before the collision and the engine started backward rapidly with four cars attached. It ran a mile through the yard at a terrific rate.

The two switchmen on the cars jumped off as the engine started on its wild run. Near Eighteenth street, the wild train dashed into another with seven caboosees attached and the entire outfit was wrecked. Engineer William Harrison, of the last named engine, was perhaps fatally injured. Fireman Ed Moberly was also badly hurt. Three engines, seven caboosees and four cars were wrecked.

HEAD-END COLLISION.

Five Men Seriously Injured, Some of Whom May Die.

NASHVILLE, Dec. 23.—A head-end collision occurred on the Louisville and Nashville road near Edgefield Junction at 7:30 yesterday morning. Five men are reported seriously hurt, perhaps fatally, though no one was instantly killed.

The injured are Conductor E. J. Oake, who suffers from severe internal injuries; Brakeman T. Odell, Fireman Frank Porter, Engineer Frank Wilkes and Fireman R. C. Johnson. Both engines and ten cars were ruined, and the track torn up for some distance. Railroad men in this city are reticent about the matter, and the cause of the accident has not been ascertained.

ASSASSINATED AT MIDNIGHT.

A Wealthy Merchant Shot to Death from Ambush.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Dec. 23.—News has just reached here of the assassination of R. P. Hariston, a wealthy merchant and planter, near Eutaw, Green county, Wednesday night. While going home from his store about midnight, he was shot to death from ambush by unknown assassins. His body was found yesterday morning.

The killing is supposed to have been for robbery, as Hariston is reported to have much money. Officers with blood hounds have gone from here to trail the murderers. Hariston was highly connected and a prominent political leader.

CONGRESS ADJOURNS

No More Sessions Will Be Held this Year.

THE HOLIDAY RECESS BEGUN.

All the Important Business Before Both Bodies Goes Over Until January 4. Nothing but Speeches in the Senate, While the House Has No Quorum.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 23.—There was less than a quorum of senators present when the day's proceedings began. Many had left the city for the holidays, and among those was Vice President Morton, in whose absence the chair was occupied by Mr. Manderson, Republican, of Nebraska, president of the senate pro tem.

Among the papers presented and referred were joint resolutions of the Vermont legislature requesting congress to enact laws establishing a uniform policy of immigration from foreign nations, and of migration from state to state.

In presenting a batch of petitions asking postponement of the anti-option bill, Mr. Cockrell, Democrat, of Missouri, spoke of them as stereotyped petitions, marked with fraud, and hardly entitled to be recognized as the kind of petitions that ought to be presented to the senate. Numerous other petitions of the same kind were presented by other senators and were all referred to the committee on agriculture.

Mr. Chandler, Republican, of New Hampshire, from the committee on immigration, reported with amendments a bill to suspend and prohibit immigration for one year from the 1st of March, 1893, and asked that it be read in full. After it was read and placed on the calendar Mr. Chandler said that the matter was of such importance that there ought to be, at the reassembling of congress in January, an immediate consideration of it. He should ask the senate on the first day of the reassembling to take up the bill for consideration and action.

Mr. Hill, Democrat, of New York, a member of the committee on immigration, said that he had not concurred in the report. There was one feature of the bill which he thought he should object to. He thought that a bill could be framed that would meet the views of the country better than the one reported, and he reserved the right at some future time to submit a minority report.

Senate bill of last session to amend existing laws relating to mineral lands and mining resources was, on motion of Mr. Stewart, of Nevada, taken from the calendar and passed, after an explanation that the bill simply applied to details in the patenting of mining claims and would not enlarge anybody's rights.

Mr. Perkins, of Kansas, introduced a bill to enable the people of Oklahoma and of the Indian Territory to form a constitutional and state government, and to be admitted into the Union on an equal footing with the original states. Referred to the committee on territories.

The McGarrhan bill was then taken up and Mr. Hutton, Democrat, of Virginia, continued his argument in favor of its passage over the president's veto. He occupied over half of the time that the senate was in session, and closed his three days' speech in his favor. Several senators intend to speak in opposition, and on that account a suggestion to have a day and hour fixed for voting on it after the holidays did not meet with favor. The bill, however, retains its privileged place in the morning hour.

Mr. Gibson, Democrat, of Maryland, was appointed a member of the committee on epidemic diseases instead of Mr. White, Democrat, of Louisiana, who was excused at his own request.

After a sort executive session the senate at 3 p. m. adjourned till Wednesday, the 4th.

In the House.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 23.—In the house yesterday Mr. McMillin moved an adjournment. Defeated—42 to 48. Committees were called for reports, but without results. As there was evidently no quorum present, the house at 12:15 adjourned until Jan. 4.

PROHIBITION IN SOUTH CAROLINA.

Radical Measures Passed by Both Houses of the Legislature.

COLUMBIA, S. C., Dec. 23.—After an all-night session, the state senate passed the Evans dispensary bill to its third reading, at 6 o'clock yesterday morning. This bill provides for the dispensing of all liquors by duly appointed officers of the state, and in its present position is engineered by the prohibitionists as an amendment to the regular prohibition bill, as only in this shape is there any possibility of passing an anti-liquor law at the present session of the legislature which will adjourn on Saturday next.

Determined opposition to the bill caused ceaseless filibustering during Wednesday night, and it is expected that it will be renewed, when the measure comes up for its third reading in the senate. The house has already passed a regular prohibition bill, and will doubtless agree to the substitution of the dispensary bill in the form of an amendment to the original bill. It is unofficially announced that Governor Tillman will approve the bill if passed.

Carlisle's Chances.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 23.—The talk grows stronger to the effect that Senator Carlisle will be named as secretary of the treasury. No one, however, has spoken authoritatively about the matter, nor can any one be found who knows of a certainty that Cleveland has proffered the senator the position.

BLAINE HOLDING HIS OWN.

Nothing in His Condition to Warrant Apprehension.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 23.—"Today has been an uneventful one for Mr. Blaine," said Dr. Johnston at 9:30 o'clock yesterday evening when met at the door of the Blaine residence. I have just come from his bedside and find him holding his own. The fact that he does not seem to lose strength is encouraging. He converses whenever permitted to do so—in fact, he is inclined to talk too much for his own good.

"He assimilates his food, and that alone gives him the necessary strength to combat the disease and withstand relapses, should they come. I can add nothing more, except to say that I see nothing in his condition tonight to warrant apprehension on the part of his family and friends of any immediate danger. I shall not go to the house again tonight unless unexpected complications set in, and there were no outward indications when I left him that he would be threatened with anything to demand my presence."

The house was more brilliantly lighted last night than for some nights past.

At midnight the bright light distinguishable in Mr. Blaine's bedroom an hour previous had disappeared, and the entire house was in semi-darkness, indicating that the family expected a quiet night. Inquiry at Dr. Johnston's residence at 11:30 p. m. also disclosed that he had retired for the night.

CHARITY BALL.

A Great and Benevolent Event Soon to Take Place in Cincinnati.

CINCINNATI, Dec. 23.—Great preparations are being made for the second annual charity ball, which will be held at Music Hall on the night of Jan. 26. The managers will endeavor to make it the most superb affair of the kind ever held in this city. Prominent people within a radius of a hundred miles will be invited and are expected to attend, and reduced rates have been secured on all the railroads centering in this city.

So far as possible the ladies will be dressed in the fashions of the period of Louis XVI, which, in connection with the gold-and-white decorations of the ball room, will make the scene one of dazzling splendor. The object of the ball is to benefit certain charities of this city, each ticket holder voting for the one he prefers, and the four receiving the largest number of votes to receive the proceeds of the ball, to be divided equally. As now planned, the decorations of Music Hall will be very beautiful and artistic, and alone worth going a long distance to see.

TWO KILLED AND FOUR WOUNDED.

Half Breeds and Indians Engage in a Drunken Battle.

DULUTH, Dec. 23.—A dispatch from Barker, Carlton county, reports a terrible night Wednesday night. A number of half breeds and Indians from the Fond du Lac reservation have been living in tepees near the Barker depot for some time.

They went to Cloquet and got their annuities from Agent Lehy and started home Wednesday. On the way they became very drunk and upon reaching Barker that night a free fight occurred in which the squaws joined. Billets of wood were used and finally the male Indians used their Winchesters. John Launtery, aged twenty-eight, was shot through the heart and died instantly. His ten-year-old son, Kingbird, was shot through the head and died at noon yesterday. Two children, a buck and a squaw, names unknown, are seriously wounded. Sheriff McKinnon has gone to Barker to arrest the murderers.

JAIL DELIVERY.

Five Prisoners Escape from a Tennessee Bastille.

CLARKSVILLE, Tenn., Dec. 23.—A jail delivery was effected here early yesterday morning. Five white prisoners—H. A. Jones, of Detroit; W. R. Lancaster, J. W. Rinehart, Billy Winders and Will Allen—made good their escape. The first three mentioned had just been sentenced to terms in the penitentiary.

There were eight men in the cell, but three of them refused to go, viz., George W. Avant, charged with wife poisoning, and two others. The escape was effected by making keys, one out of a tin box and another of wood. After getting out the cell blankets were made into ropes and the ground reached from the back window. None of the fugitives have been captured.

LABOR COUNCILS.

Secret Session Held at the Federation Headquarters in New York.

NEW YORK, Dec. 23.—The sessions of the American Federation of Labor councils closed yesterday. It was held in secret at their headquarters. There were present Samuel Gompers, the president; P. J. McGuire, of Philadelphia, first vice president; J. Carney, of Pittsburgh, second vice president; Chris Evans, of New York, secretary, and John B. Lennon, of New York, treasurer.

Mr. Gompers said the business taken up was entirely of a routine character, and related to extending and broadening the work of the federation. He said that in the coming year, if their hopes were realized, the organization would become international in scope and extent.

Struck by a Freight Train.

SHELBYVILLE, Ind., Dec. 23.—The local freight on the Big Four railroad, due here at 9:30 a. m., ran into a team belonging to G. C. Pratt & Company, lumber men, killing the horses and crushing the wagon into splinters. Henry White, who is about sixty years of age, was on the wagon. He was thrown thirty feet, receiving injuries which may result in his death.

KILLED HIS MISTRESS

Then Paid the Death Penalty on the Scaffold.

A NEGRO MURDERER HANGED.

At One Time the Victim of the Gallows Was a Preacher, Then a Prize Fighter and Finally a Murderer—A Slow Death by Strangulation.

JERSEY CITY, Dec. 22.—Edward W. Hallinger, the negro murderer, was hanged at the Hudson county jail at 10:06 o'clock Thursday morning. Death was by slow strangulation. He was not pronounced dead until he was hanging nineteen minutes. The execution took place in the second corridor of the jail. James Van Hise, the official hangman, arrived at 7 a. m. and erected the gallows which has served its purpose on a dozen similar occasions.

Hallinger's Crime.

Hallinger was a Baptist exhorter and then a prize fighter. It is said that Mary Peterson, the woman he killed, had a husband in Connecticut, whom she deserted for Hallinger. The couple had two children, who are now in Virginia. Hallinger was very jealous of his mistress. She left him because of his cruelty in the winter of 1890-91. On March 18, 1891, he was arraigned before the late Justice Stillbury on a charge of trying to cut the woman's throat. He agreed to leave the city and not again molest the woman and was discharged.

On the night of April 5, while intoxicated, Hallinger went to the house of Joseph Moore, on Third street, Jersey City, where the Peterson woman was living, and demanded admittance. The woman heard his voice and called to Moore not to let Hallinger in. This enraged Hallinger and he pushed Moore aside and rushed into the house and threw a hatchet at his wife's head, and then rained blows with the hatchet on her head, shoulders, neck and arms until the upper part of her body was little more than a shapeless mass. Then Hallinger drew a large knife and cut the woman's throat.

Hallinger was arrested and repeatedly said that he killed his wife and was glad of it. He said he intended that her death should be pitiless and he thought it was.

When arraigned he pleaded guilty and was sentenced to be hanged on June 30, 1891. Lawyer Charles J. Schall secured a stay from Judge Green, of the United States district court, of Trenton, pending an appeal. Schall held that a trial without a jury was unlawful because the constitution guaranteed a jury trial and that an essential and fundamental right could not be waived. Three times since then Schall staid the execution. Schall fought for Hallinger to the last.

A telegram was received from Lawyer Schall at 9 o'clock, asking the sheriff to wait until 2 p. m., but no attention was paid to the request. He said he would have the case before a justice at 10 o'clock.

COLLECTING THE QUEER.

Fifteen Thousand Dollars in Counterfeit Money Secured.

INDIANAPOLIS, Dec. 23.—Thomas B. Carter, chief of the secret service bureau, is in town preparing his semi-annual shipment of counterfeit money which he has collected during the past year, to Washington. On Jan. 1 he will send to Washington about $15,000 of "queer."

In a talk Chief Carter said that he predicted one of the most gigantic and successful counterfeiting schemes in the country's history at Chicago next year. He believed that the souvenir coins would be counterfeited and find ready sale, and he would not be surprised if as many bogus as genuine coins would be in circulation. Chief Carter said the metal of which the genuine souvenirs are made can be easily secured and molded at a cost of forty cents each. They will be sold for $1, affording a profit of sixty cents to the makers.

FLYWHEEL BURSTS.

One Man Killed and Another Seriously Injured.

MUNCIE, Ind., Dec. 23.—About 4:30 a. m., a governor belt on the large engine of the White river steel rolling mills became loose, then broke, letting the engine run away with itself. It soon broke the driving belt.

Head Night Roller Ed Perkins made a dash to shut off steam and at the same time Engineer Collet reached for the throttle, when the terrible strain on the flywheel, free of the belt, broke in many pieces, and sent it tearing through the walls of the mill, killing Perkins and perhaps fatally injuring Collet. The damage is fully $10,000. The wrecked wheel weighed 10,000 pounds. All the steam pipes were blown out.

UNCONQUERABLE.

The Yaquis Are Again Massacring the Mexicans.

CHIHUAHUA, Mex., Dec. 22.—The Mexican government troops sent from here to the Sierra Madre mountains to suppress the Yaqui and Mace Indian uprising are unable to put down the rebellion. The Indians, to the number of 8,000, have their rendezvous in an almost inaccessible canyon of the Yaqui river, and bands of them continue to make frequent raids upon the white and Mexican settlers. Dozens of families have been massacred during the past few weeks and the troops have been powerless to prevent the depredations.

The Yaquis number about 20,000 and they have never been conquered by the Mexican government.

LEAD TO KNOWLEDGE, and knowledge is power in all business as in other walks of life. The opportunity is here, and all you have to do is to grasp it, and it is yours. No doubt you have learned that The Old Reliable Red Corner Building is to be remodeled after the Holidays, and there is but one thing to do, and that is to get the large stock of CLOTHING out of the building before the workmen commence. This is no scheme to gull the consumer, but an actual fact, which has been put off as long as possible, and now they MUST go, at YOUR price, not ours. Our immense stock will be thrown on the market Saturday morning, and we will continue the cut prices until everything is closed out, from a Collar Button to the finest Suit or Overcoat sold in the city. Do not listen to anyone, but come and see for yourself.

REPUBLICANS who have been scheming to steal the Legislatures of Nebraska and Wyoming received a knock-out blow this week. The Supreme Court of the two States rendered rulings in the contests directly against the schemers.

DURING the five months of 1891 ending November 30th, our exports aggregated $431,189,299. During the same period of 1892 we sold to other countries goods to the value of only $371,743,571. Great is Harrison, McKinley & Co.'s Republican reciprocity.

SOME of the Yale students who recently broke up a theatrical performance and then tried to take the town have been given the full penalty of the law. Their rowdiness was disgraceful in the extreme. It's a matter of surprise and regret that institutions like Yale allow pupils to longer remain in school after such doings.

SINCE 1890, according to official statistics just issued, Michigan has produced 60,614,464 barrels of salt. But there are still a few politicians there who are too fresh.

THE next Senator from Nebraska will not be a Republican, the Supreme Court of that State having upset the scheme to steal the Legislature.

THE Ashland Signal copied the BULLETIN's account of the Moffett assault word for word, and ran it in as a special from this city. In the same issue the Signal copied another article from the BULLETIN word for word. No credit whatever was given in either case. The editor of the Signal is an expert with the shear, but his conscience has been terribly seared. It takes a good deal of gall to palm off a clipping for a special.

THE National Council of Women in session at Chicago resolved against corsets, high heels, tight sleeves and street dresses with trains. They overlooked the high-crowned opera hat.

Took Them Rabbit Hunting.
Parker Lee, a harmless lunatic who escaped from the Lexington Asylum several days ago, was taken in custody yesterday by Sheriff Alexander, and will be returned to Lexington. He was found near Lewisburg. Another harmless lunatic named Tuffey, who escaped at same time, was last heard of in the eastern part of the county. Lee says the Keeper took eleven of them out rabbit hunting last Saturday, and he and Tuffey slipped away from the crowd.

MENTION has been made of the marriage here this week of Charles L. Martin and Miss Minnie Renaker, who came over from Cynthiana. The groom's home is in Iowa. Miss Renaker was in Cynthiana purchasing her trousseau, intending to marry another fellow, when she met Martin. The two had been friends and sweethearts a few years ago. He proposed an elopement as soon as he heard what was up, and the two lost no time in making their way to this city where the ceremony was solemnized. They left for the groom's western home shortly afterwards.

JUDGE PHISTER tied the nuptial knot yesterday at the Clerk's office for J. E. Farley and Miss Rachel Alderson, of Morehead. The groom is a copyist and this is his second marriage. The bride is aged twenty-two and the groom thirty-eight.

FELIX I. JONES and Miss Tressie Newman, of Richmond, Ky., were married yesterday at the County Clerk's office by Judge Phister. The groom is a school teacher.

BALLENGER'S

Nothing succeeds like success, and to merit success has been my constant aim. Have I attained it? Yes; I think I have, because I have transacted a larger business during the year just drawing to a close than I have for any two previous years since I entered mercantile life. My motto in the past, and I intend it shall continue in the future, is to give more value than money received and see that you are pleased with your purchase, to have you can enticed as to style, design, and purity of article selected. This is where my long experience is of value to you, and I feel that I cannot impress you too urgently regarding the advisability of making your purchase as early in the week as possible and in the mornings if convenient. I have a large stock of the choicest novelties in Diamond and Gem Jewelry than ever before. For those who cannot come during the day the store will remain open evenings. You will certainly make a mistake if you fail to call on me when selecting anything in the Jewelry line. Solid Silverware is one of my specialties.

MARRIED AT MAVSLICK.

J. B. H. Writes Particulars of the Boyd-Raymond Wedding This Week.

A beautiful wedding occurred at the residence of 'Squire J. D. Raymond near Mayslick on the 20th instant, when his daughter, Miss Mary, was united in marriage to A. J. Boyd, of Tarrent, Wolfe County, Ky.

Promptly at 2 o'clock the bridal party descended the stairs to the music of a beautiful wedding march, and in the cozy little parlor the ceremony that made them one was gracefully performed by Elder F. M. Tindler, of the Church of the Disciples.

There were about seventy-five guests present to witness the happy marriage. The bride, a sparkling and vivacious brunette, was becomingly attired in a mode colored cloth with fur trimmings, with hat and gloves to match. Miss Ella Boyd, of Berry, first bridesmaid, sisters of groom, looked lovely in garnet, Bedford cord and black lace. The queenly widow, Mrs. Laura Thomas, of Carlisle, second bridesmaid, was a regular spellbinder in an exquisite lot of green velvet. The bride and her maids carried pretty bouquets of La France roses.

The skilful pianist, Miss Lizzie Mitchell Parry, daughter of Dr. H. L. Parry, furnished most appropriate music for the entrance, during the ceremony, and for the retiring bridal party. The bridal chorus given while the minister was entwining his nuptial crown and pronouncing the twin husband and wife was especially sweet.

At the conclusion of the taking of the marriage vows, good wishes to the bride and congratulations to the groom were given and the party were driven to Mayslick to take the 4:30 "Flyer" for Kansas City.

Among the pleasant guests from a distance were Miss Helen D. Boyd and Miss Lillian Boyd, of Cincinnati, sisters of the groom, Miss Anna Rogers, of Carlisle, Miss Ninn Bridges, of Maysville, Mrs. Ben Johnson, Mrs. Sophia Tolle and daughter, Miss Anna, of Fleming, Miss Miss Loula Myall and Mrs. F. M. Tindler, of Mayslick, and Colonel J. G. Craddock, of Paris.

Mr. Andrew Jackson Boyd, the groom, is a bright and handsome young gentleman of fine business habit and is telegraph operator at Tarrent, on the K. U. R'y. He is a native of Harrison County. The groomsmen were Willie Gooding and James H. Raymond. The ushers were Caliborne Fox and Joseph E. Caldwell. The bride was the recipient of many useful and valuable presents.

The ante-nuptial banquet given to the bridal party before the guests arrived was an evening of most delightful social enjoyment. The 'Squire and his good lady are capital entertainers.

A Social Session

Music and humor will hold high carnival at the opera house to-morrow night when Sprague's company of comedians, augmented by the famous Black Hussar Band and Star Orchestra, present their latest comedy success, "A Social Session." The play is said to be intensely funny and to possess rare charm of originality, while the scenes and situations follow one upon the other with a naturalness and unique humor that fairly captivates the audience. Few comedies have embodied in them so many delightful melodies, it is said. The company carries a superb orchestra that is an attraction in itself, and necessary to a smooth and perfect production of the play. Watch for the grand street parade.

The Ladies.

The pleasant effect and perfect safety with which ladies use the California liquid laxative Syrup of Figs, under all conditions, make it their favorite remedy. To get the true and genuine article, look for the name of the California Fig Syrup Co., printed near the bottom of the package.

PURELY PERSONAL.

Mr. R. M. Hardiman, of Paris, was in Maysville yesterday.

Miss Ethel M. Waldron, of Pueblo, Colo., is visiting Mr. H. R. Bierbower.

Mrs. R. K. Hart and children, of Fleming, are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Frazee.

Miss Retta Smoot, of near Minerva, has been spending the week with Miss Sallie Wood and the Misses Martin, of Forest avenue.

Miss Be-sie Owens, who is attending school at Mt. Auburn, Cincinnati, came home yesterday to spend the holiday vacation.

Mr. Clarence Nugent, who is attending school in Tennessee, came in yesterday to spend Christmas with his parents, Rev. and Mrs. C. J. Nugent.

MARRIAGE license was granted Thursday to Wm. Gillespie and Mary Wheatley, colored.

We have placed on sale 1,000 children and misses' gold rings, at the remarkable low price of 50, 60, 70, 80, 90 cents, $1, $1.10, $1.75 each. Solid gold. Do not miss seeing them at Hopper & Co.'s, the jewelers.

My stock of ladies' and gents' gold and filled watches, also diamond pins, rings, studs, neck chains and pendants, is very large. I have decided to cut the prices on them rather than carry them over the holidays. Now is your chance for a bargain, at Murphy's, the jeweler, successor to Hopper & Murphy.

Two Italian jewelry peddlers were rather roughly handled last night by some of the colored deckhands on the St. Lawrence just before the boat left the wharf. One of the Italians had his ear split open by a blow, and the grip containing his goods was stolen in the melee. Deputy Marshal Stockdale arrived on the scene just as the boat was leaving, but the Captain waited until he could make a search for the negro. The fellow who hit the peddler and got the jewelry had skipped, however, and has not been apprehended.

Dr. W. J. Cardwell, of Lebanon, Ky., has sued the Louisville Press Company for libel, laying damage at $15,000, and also in the same suit, in a separate paragraph, sues for $75,000 for charging him with crime and a reckless destruction of the vineyard. The suit is the outgrowth of an article that appeared in the Louisville Commercial purporting to be a full account of the doctor's recent alleged highly sensational doings in the city of Louisville, and among other things an attempt to commit suicide, all of which the doctor says is false and malicious.

THE RIVER TRADE.

The Latest Talk in Marine Circles Concerning the White Collar Line.

Says the Portsmouth Blade: "There is talk in marine circles of the Fleetwood and Bostona being placed in the trade between Cincinnati and Huntington, to run on schedule time and make three trips per week, the same as they did when the 'railroad line' was in vogue, and thus make an attempt to hold the river passenger trade. This plan looks feasible. Every other part of the Ohio river seems to be holding its trade, despite the competition of the railroads. The boats between Cincinnati and Louisville do a large business, also those in trades lower down on the Ohio. The boats between Pittsburgh, Wheeling and Cincinnati, in addition to good general traffic, are becoming largely excursion boats, mainly because they are good boats and run on schedule time, and because the owners and managers seek by every means to make the trip a pleasant one. Then there are shorter trades, those between Huntington and Parkersburg, and Parkersburg and Pittsburgh, with good, swift boats and plenty of business. There is still a fair business between Pomeroy and Cincinnati, but between Huntington and Cincinnati, where the population is densest and the intervening towns and cities the largest and most prosperous, the river trade seems to succumb to the railroads. This is largely owing to the fact that the boats are not run on schedule time. With a railroad on each side of the river people do not care to wait for a boat, when they don't know when she will be along.

"The White Collar company are awake to the importance of the traffic on this part of the river, hence the proposed fast line. The Fleetwood and Bostona are the largest, fastest and best equipped boats on the Ohio, and if run as proposed much of the old time river travel will be regained.

"It is proposed to run the boats on the restaurant plan, the same as that now in vogue on the Anchor line, between St. Louis and New Orleans."

Railway News.
The Big Four has earned about $14,500,000 this year. President Ingalls says it must earn $20,000,000 in 1893, and this is probably the reason he is already cutting down expenses by abolishing offices.
The Louisville and Nashville is the only trunk-line in the South showing increased earnings this year. The earnings of the road for 1892 will exceed $22,000,000. This speaks well for the present management.
